What is the GNIHN?

Proceeds of this concert will be donated by the band to the Greater Nashua Interfaith Hospitality Network. This is an organization supported by more than 20 congregations that provides emergency transitional services to homeless families. The organization provides shelter at the Anne-Marie House located on property owned by Sisters the Presentation of Mary in Hudson. For more information visit their website: www.gnihn.org or call 603-883-7338.
